TUTT'S PILLS Are compounded from substances that are free from any properties that can injure the most delicate organization. They Search, Cleanse, Purify and Invigorate the Entire System. By relieving the engorged liver, they cleanse the blood from poisoncus humors, and thus impart health and vitality to the body, causing the bowels to act naturally, without which no one can feel well. can feel well. A NOTED DIVINE SAYS:

Dr. Tutt-Desr Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommend-ed to me; I used them (but with little faith) I am now a well man, have a good appetite, di-gestion perfoct, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty counds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold. Rev. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky. TUTT'S PILLS.

Their first effect is to increase the appetite, and cause the body to take on flesh, thus the system is nourished and by their Tonic Action on the Digestive Oreans Regular stools are produced. DE. J. F. HAYWOOD, OF NEW YORK, SAYS:—
"Few diseases exist that cannot be relieved by and understood the whole business. "Been gettin' a lickin', Bin?' asked several, sympathetically.

"Yes," murmured he; "I got licked fur obeyin' orders." "Disobeyin', you mean," cried they.
"No, far obeyin', I tell ye," persisted he; then seeing their looks of incredulity, he made this explanation: "When I were a comin' into the house my boots were as muddy as blazes, and mother had just been scrubbin' the floor; says she, 'Now. Ben, you better walk right, over that clean floor with your muldy boots.'
"Anything to oblige you," says I. So I walked across the room, and she lit on me like a cat on

A Chinese Dinner. A letter from a lady formerly living here, who is no the wife of an American official in China, writes to her friends at home an account of a ceremonicus dinner which she attended recently. The feast was given by the "deputy," and was attended by only saven person ; three American gentlemen, two American Itdies and two Chineso men, besides the hos: Describing the deputy as a "lovely old man." the letter says :

He passed to me first a cup of hot wine with a graceful bow; it was only after that that one could sit down. He made the tour of the table and gave each guest his wine, accompassed by the chin chins [bows] from both parties. Before each guest were three plates about the size of a little girl's tea set plate—three inches in diameter. On these plates we ate all our diamet except the scups, which were put belor? us in small bowls. Each one had his capp-sticks and a two pronged silver fork. In a few moments, as Mrs. M. and I could not use them very well, we were given our own forks and knives. At each place was a big pile of melon and apricot seeds, and this pile was replanish. ed constantly during the four hours we were at the table. Between the courses everybody was cracking and eating away at the melor seeds. They were not very good, of course, yet it was amusing to nibble at them. and they came is not from the oven and on the whole did not taste bully. On the table when we sat down were eight dishest of preserved fruit of different hinds. They were all on those small dishes, but put one on top of the other to make a kind of pyramil. and in a row along the centre of the table w re other dishes larger in size and holding the more substantial things. On one were she a of libster and salted walnuts—very good, both of them. Oa another were goose g zzari+ cain thin slices; on another shrings all d, and on another thin slices of chicken. These were a meant to give an appetite for the dinner which followed. I sat next to the old deputy, and he helped me from all the different dishes within his greath and a markful or or stress within his reach—only a mouthful or so from each, though. When we had tried all these things the first course was brought on, and, as ! suppose you imagine, it was "birds' uest stup, and very good, too. We have nothing like i. at home. After that we had stowed chicken with young onion sprouts. The third course was cold mutton served with raw turnip cut is long, this strips.

Fourth-awfully good-was pigeon eggs in a kind of acid soup. Fifth-Cucumbers stuffed with chapped fish. Sixth-Roast obickens served in very shall bits with mushrooms.

Seventh-Sharks' fice.

Eighth-Mutton damplings. After that there was a little rest and we walked about the garden, going to work again after a half hour. I Ninth-Pork soup. Tenth-Stewed mussels.

Eleventh-Compignous and spinach made tegether. Twellth-Ham in slices. Thirteenth-Stewed pigeons and bean curd.

Sixteenth-Sea slugs (something awful to look at, just like lerches with pimples on them ) Seventeenth-Mushrooms and bamboo sprous carved for us. I thought the dinner at an end when we had the cakes and was taken abuek to to see this animal make its appearance. They served first the crackle or skin. It was A No. I and we began to each cat anew; second they served the lean meat ; third they served some water, and I don't know what. After that tea, and it was over. This was followed by a two day's headache. Hartford Courant. as he came out to joic his companions; a peen-
